

Make Enchanting Mountain Memories at Beech Mountain, NC

As spring approaches, travelers looking to make memories with friends or family will find inspiration at Beech Mountain, NC. As the highest town in Eastern America, Beech has a variety of exciting and fun recreational opportunities, postcard perfect vistas and cozy accommodations to unwind after a day of meaningful moments together.

As the highest town in Eastern America at 5506'ft, Beech offers a naturally awe-inspiring place for a wide range of outdoor experiences for all ages from hiking and biking to kayaking and birdwatching. With two lakes for fishing (and one for paddling), multiple trails with varying difficulty levels for hikers and bikers, a designation from The High-Country Audubon Society as a major "hot spot" of abundant bird population, a dedicated recreation center with tennis, volleyball and basketball courts and kid-friendly outside attractions, visitors can enjoy scenic views and fresh air with their active adventures.

For the young, and young at heart, Beech offers a variety of fun experiences. Families can explore the Mountaineer Adventure Tower, a climbing experience with a thrilling 25-foot slide; release kid energy on one of three unique area playgrounds; or challenge each other to a round of mini-golf or arcade games at Brick Oven Pizzeria. Visitors can even feel free to bring their furkids along, with leashed dogs welcomed at most restaurants, trails and a dedicated dog park with High Country views.

In addition, there is an abundance of lodging options that will fit all group sizes, including pet-friendly places. Renters can enjoy the privacy of a condo, chalet or home recalling the day's adventures by a crackling fire or in the hot tub.

On top of that, as travelers look for less crowded times to visit, the shoulder season between spring and early summer offers the perfect opportunity for visitors to experience the mountain peacefully. No PTO time, no worries -the town is also perfect for those who want to combine remote work in an inspiring location.
