

Beech Mountain: Ski, Sled and Stay

Beech Mountain, NC – With sweeping views of snow-capped mountain tops, Beech Mountain, NC is the pinnacle of winter destinations and a true east coast gem. Once the 80 inches of yearly snowfall blanket this mountain hideaway, this magical destination becomes a winter wonderland getaway haven for friends and families. Visitors are drawn to the town for tubing, skiing, snowboarding, sledding, or winter hiking, yet they know they can also unwind and re-group in cozy lodging nearby. This versatility is what makes Beech Mountain the perfect escape for an unforgettable winter vacation.

Beech Mountain Resort – Slope Shredding

Beech Mountain Resort offers guests a centralized location within the Town of Beech Mountain to enjoy winter sports. As the highest ski area in Eastern America, with 17 trails on 98 skiable areas, the resort offers snow-centric activities (skiing, snowboarding and tubing) for every skill level from mid-November to mid-March. Guests can also sip coffee by a roaring fire in the Resort Village, enjoy après ski drinks at 5506' or Beech Mountain Brewing, and delight in the unique views offered throughout the season.

Tip: Visitors to Beech Mountain can also rent their equipment, apparel and accessories through the Beech Meadows Ski Shop, Alpine Ski Center, Fred's General Mercantile or the White Wolf Lodge.

FREE Winter Adventures

The town also offers plenty of unique excursions that are free to visitors.

Sledding

The Beech Mountain Youth Sledding Hill provides free fun for children 12 and under. The Sledding Hill is centrally located in town behind Brick Oven Pizzeria from and 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. every day and select holidays.

Winter Hiking

Winter hiking in Beech Mountain offers a magical experience as the landscape transforms into a serene, snowy wonderland. Trails weave through frosted woodlands, leading to sweeping views of snow-capped peaks with and range from easy paths suitable for beginners to challenging routes for seasoned adventurers.

Refuel

Many of Beech Mountain's restaurants include outdoor and indoor seating options, live music on designated days, extensive menus, and quick service. Visitors can choose from locally owned restaurants to suit any palette such as Fred's Backside Deli, Famous Brick Oven Pizzeria, Holy Smokes BBQ, Alpen Restaurant, Slope View Café, Bullwinkle's Pizzeria and Sportsbar and Whistle Pig Pub. Beech Mountain Resort offers Beech Mountain Brewing Taproom & Grill and First Chair Coffee Shop in the Resort Village and the unparalleled views of 5506' at the summit of the mountain.

Retreat and Relax with Cozy Accommodations

After a fun day of exploring, visitors can re-group by a crackling fire with hot cocoa or mulled wine, recharge the muscles in a bubbling hot tub and restore energy for the next day's adventures. There are lodging options for groups of all sizes from condos, chalets, and private homes, to quaint inns and lodges.

Some fun options include:

Beech Mountain Chalet Rentals

Cliffside treehouse:

Carolina Stays

A-Frame cabin with “A-Frame of Mind”

A stunning mountaintop chalet “Oz Cathedral”

Beech Mountain Resort Lodging

Ski-In/Ski-Out villa options

White Wolf Lodge

Chalets with an unobstructed view of the mountain.